About the Organizers

- The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators
Founded in 1915 and now with 11,000 members across more than 100 countries, the CIArb is a centre of excellence for the global promotion, facilitation and development of all forms of dispute resolution. The Institute is a not-for-profit, UK registered charity working in the public interest through an international network of more than 30 Branches and Chapters.
Website: www.arbitrators.org, www.european-arbitrators.org

- The Chamber of Arbitration of Milan
The Chamber of Arbitration of Milan is a special branch of the Chamber of Commerce of Milan and specializes in commercial dispute resolution. The Chamber provides several services and tools known as ADR (Alternative Dispute Resolution), which allow for a resolution of disputes within time-limits and through methods that are different from - alternative to, thus - judicial proceedings.
The resolution of disputes is one of the market regulation functions attributed by law to the Chambers of Commerce (Italian Law No. 580 of 1993).
Website: www.camera-arbitrale.it

Who should attend?

Legal (both private practice and in-house), academics, and business managers interested in alternative dispute resolution. The conference will be held in English without translation.
Italian Professional Credits have been requested. Participants will be kept informed.

The conference programme will be delivered by a number of distinguished professionals selected from both the legal profession and the business world.
A debate will be held on the subject of when to choose arbitration or mediation and how to get the best results from each one.
