

ETHICS IN INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION: THE ROLE AND CONDUCT OF ARBITRATOR AND COUNSEL

18 November 2010

Palazzo Turati
Via Meravigli, 9/B
Milan

a “FOCUS on” Seminar and Cocktail

ORGANISED BY

15.30/16.00 Registration

16.00 Welcome and introduction

◦ Co-chairs of Arblt

Angelo Anglani, Ughi e Nunziante, Rome
Michelangelo Cicogna, De Berti Jacchia
Franchini Forlani, Milan

◦ The point of view of the Institution -

Approach of the Milan Chamber of Arbitration to the roles of Arbitrator and Counsel in International Arbitration

Chiara Giovannucci Orlandi, Chamber of Arbitration, Milan

*

16.10/18.00 Seminar

◦ The point of view of the Counsel -
Counsel in international arbitration, ethics and relationship with other “players of the game”

Constantine Partasides, Freshfields,
London

◦ Dos and Don'ts in the Relationship between Arbitrator and Counsel in International Arbitration

Julian D M Lew QC, 20Essex Street
Chambers, London

*

◦ The point of view of the Arbitrator -
The International Arbitrator, ethics and relationship with Counsel and Parties

Pier-Yves Gunter, Python & Peter, Geneva

Comments and questions from the audience

Closing of the seminar

On the occasion
the Chamber of Arbitration of Milan will offer an overview of the key-features of the 2010 revision of its Arbitration Rules

Stefano Azzali, Secretary General, Chamber of Arbitration, Milan

The Cocktail will follow

The seminar is organised with the support of

MILAN
CHAMBER OF ARBITRATION